I always get excited when there's fruit or veg that's only available for a short period of time and/or they're a variety that feels different to the day-to-day. I've found it's a really good way to shift the mindset from feeling like you have to eat veg for good health to being able to eat new foods and have new experiences being a foodie, that's super important for me. Of course, eating seasonal fruit and veg is also better for the planet, so you get a positive mental boost from this approach too. navigate here
