I used to be a good guy myself until I realized years ago that it was holding me back from getting what most men really want out of a relationship, which is true and genuine desire from the woman. It's funny how women will friendzone all these men who are more than willing to treat her well and support her, yet she says "except you" when he raises his hand to be the man in her life. It's pathetic on the beta orbiter's side, and it's cruel and hypocritical on the woman's side. websites
