Regular Autoflowering Regular Autoflowering cannabis seeds are a game changer Unlike photoperiod strains, which begin flowering systematically with the ratio of light exposure and dark periods (as natural habitat). Autoflowering cannabis seeds automatically shift from vegetative growth to flowering stages with age as opose to light exposure. Regular autoflowering cannabis seeds are the cheapest atuoflowers that you can buy and that makes them very desirable to new growers.

Se ne parlava da mesi, ma negli ultimi tempi la possibilita e sempre piu concreta. Hound Labs, azienda con sede a Oakland, California, ha infatti rilasciato un comunicato sottolineando che e imminente il rilascio sul mercato del suo prodotto, chiamato Hound Marijuana Breathalyzer, che puo appunto rilevare la presenza di molecole di THC nel respiro ???? Why Grow With Autoflowering Weed Seeds? Compared to regular, feminized and fast version seeds, autoflowering cannabis seeds have many advantages. Beginner-friendly. Autoflower plants won't tolerate much stress or injury but they grow fast enough to lower the chances of anything catastrophic. Small and discreet. ??Mandanos un mensaje directo para que una de nuestras asesoras te ayude a elegir sin compromiso de compra y te explique cualquier duda que tengas. ?NUNCA TE QUEDES CON NINGUNA DUDA, ESTAMOS AQUI PARA AYUDARTE! ?? Why choose Autoflowering seeds? Life can be very busy & time is precious, but that doesn't mean you shouldn't enjoy all the highs and flavours you expect from our regular and feminized strains. The high THC content, high yielding performance from our new Autoflowering strains is amazing! If you don't have the time; want a quick turnaround? Logo for @abovegroundpizza that I did last year but completely forgot to post. Swipe to see the giant sign that they turned the design into, and check them out if you are in the New Braunfels/San Antonio TX area! ???? If you have a lot of growing experience, regular cannabis seeds is the most logical choice. But if you still need to master the cultivation of plants, then Autoflowering is the best choice. Autoflowering plants are easier to raise because they switch to the flowering period completely automatically. They do not depend on a change in light scheme. This next run is purely for flower. I won't be doing a seed reproduction this time. If I do pollinate anything, it would only be a few of the lower flowers with some Pakistan75 pollen. this page
